

CALL FOR ARTISTS: Artists working mosaic, clay and drawing

Location: ARTCORE

Application Deadline: December 15th 2018

Artcore is looking for experienced artists to deliver a block of 6 sessions for Innocence and Expression programme.

We support artists, expose the creative process, and engage new audiences with visual art. We achieve this by delivering an exciting and varied programme of exhibitions, off-site projects and participation events. Our aim is to make the appreciation and creation of art a more inclusive activity. It is an ethos we have been adhering to for nearly 20 years.

We are seeking expressions of interest from experienced artists, facilitators and workshop leaders to help us deliver a block of 6 sessions project for Innocence and Expression.

Innocence and Expression is a BBC Children in Need funded programme especially designed for young people Up to 18 years old. Innocence and expression programme is inclusive; there are no barriers to access such as academic attainment, culture, language, faith, ethnicity or disability. And as such, our programme will empower participants to gain an increased sense of confidence and raised aspirations whilst making constructive and affirmative differences to all young people's lives. These sessions are held every other Saturday during term time (2pm - 4pm).

We would like to hear from artists working in the following, but not limited to:

- Mosaic
- Clay
- Drawing
- Sculpture

With a specific focus on creating a final, collaborating piece with children.

You must be able to demonstrate how you could use mosaic, clay and drawing to engage young and support their learning. We envisage that this will be a collaborative project, whereby young will act as curators or facilitators of their own learning. Thus, we mean that the artists must be willing to be flexible and adaptable to the young's needs.

Artcore strives to be an equal opportunities employer and is committed to ensuring that no applicant is discriminated against on the grounds of sex, marital or parental status, religious or political beliefs, colour, race, ethnic origins, sexual orientation, age, disability or any other criterion not relevant to their prospective employment.

Timeline:

The projects will be taking place between January - July 2019 therefore, please let us know your availability for this period.

Artist Specification:

- You should be able to demonstrate experience of leading workshops with vulnerable young people. You will be responsible for your own tax, national insurance and Public Liability insurances.
- You must hold a valid enhanced DBS certificate (within the last two years)
- Driving license and access to a car would be desirable but not essential

Artcore will supply equipment and materials, subject to agreement with the relevant member of the team.

How to apply

To apply, please contact us with an up-to-date CV and portfolio and a workshop proposal. Submissions should be directed to: abi@artcoreuk.com with the subject: Art Enhancing Life Education and Learning - Expression of interest

Deadline: 15th December 2018
